

Vote Josephine Garcia for District 5 House of Representatives in the Republican Primary on June 4th!

In a time when COVID has shown us our disposability and silenced voices, Josephine Garcia steps forward as your advocate. Are we content with the trajectory of America? Whom do we trust to lead us toward reform? It begins with each of us. Josephine is committed to being your conduit for change, echoing the principles laid out in the United States Constitution and the motto of South Dakota government: "Under God, the People Rule."

As a dedicated Republican, Josephine champions the values of individual liberty, limited government, and personal responsibility. She stands firm in defense of pro-life beliefs, Second Amendment rights, and a commitment to excellence in education. Josephine's resolve is unwavering; she will tirelessly defend these fundamental rights.

With roots tracing back to the Mayflower, Josephine embraces the spirit of South Dakota. Her journey from a strong Christian German Irish family on the East Coast to the open prairies of Watertown underscores her deep connection to community and tradition. Engaged in the equine community and devoted to supporting youth in 4H, Josephine understands the pulse of agriculture and rural life.

From her humble beginnings as a nurse's aide, Josephine's ascent in healthcare is a testament to her dedication. With a bachelor's in nursing, dual board certification in advance practice, a medical degree, and a doctorate in leadership, she embodies the essence of service. Josephine's extensive training and experience equip her to provide compassionate, knowledgeable care to her community.

Together, let's preserve South Dakota's essence. Let's usher in change with Josephine Garcia, whose actions speak volumes against the status quo. Vote for Josephine, and let's shape a future worthy of our shared values.

You can vote for Josephine Garcia starting on April 19th. To request an absentee ballot please call the Codington County Auditor at 605-882-6297.

You can also vote in person for her on Tuesday June 4th in the Republican Primary at the Codington County Extension Building at 1910 West Kemp Ave in Watertown from 7am to 7pm.

Thank you for your support,

Dr. Josephine Garcia
